Among the first at the scene was Capt. Paul Dickermann, commander of the Hebron, Ky. life squad.

"We were running across the field past a man and when we went on, there was a man carrying a child from the burning wreckage of the plane," Dickermann said.

He said they were both badly hurt but told him to go on and help the others. Dickermann said the man then collapsed in his arms.

Interest Rate Increased by Big Banks

NEW YORK (AP) — Chase Manhattan and First National City Bank, two key banks in the New York money market, today raised their prime lending rate to 6 per cent from 5 1/2 effective immediately.

The move by Chase, second largest in the nation, and First National City, third largest, could trigger a nationwide increase in the prime rate. Banks outside New York usually follow the lead of the big money center institutions.

Other large New York banks, including Morgan Guaranty Trust and Manufacturers Hanover Trust, also joined in the raises. Banks in other sections of the country began raising their rate also.

Closed Meet Failed to Come Off

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The planned closed meeting of the Commission on Coordination of Higher Educational Finance to consider a report on the proposed University of Arkansas-Little Rock University merger didn't come off today.

The commission deferred any consideration of the study until the commission has completed its final report for the Arkansas Legislative Council.

Five newsmen appeared at today's meeting.

Last week, E. L. Angell, commission executive director, said the group would meet in closed session to consider a study prepared by consultants. Angell had said he was aware of the new freedom of information act that prohibits closed meetings of governmental units, but he said, "If we are going to have the press here, we just won't discuss it."

Angell opened today's meeting by saying that news reports of the meeting needed an explanation. He said misunderstandings had occurred about the meeting "because of my inept use of the English language."

"This morning's meeting is not a closed meeting of the commission, nor a special meeting of the commission, but a meeting of members of the commission who volunteered to attend this meeting to meet with the consultants on the statewide study of higher education and its needs in Arkansas," Angell said.

He said that after the final report is received, a special meeting of the commission would be called to consider it and the news media would be notified and were welcome to attend.

Israel Planes Hit Jordan Positions

By ED BLANCHE
Associated Press Writer
TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli jet fighter-bombers attacked Jordanian positions on the east bank of the Jordan River today for the first time since the Arab-Israeli war in June.

Jordan claimed two Israeli planes were shot down and said the pilot of the first one bailed out and was killed. It did not say how.

Israel admitted the loss of one of its French Mysteres and said the pilot bailed out over Jordan. The Israeli Army also announced that one Israeli was killed and one wounded by Jordanian shelling. It claimed six Jordanian tanks and one armored car destroyed.

Amman Radio said the Jordanians lost only one military vehicle and there were no casualties to Jordanian personnel. It claimed Israeli tanks and other equipment were set ablaze, two Israeli gun positions were destroyed and most of their personnel were killed.

Amman said King Hussein, now in London, was in constant telephone contact with his brother, Crown Prince Hassan, until the fighting stopped, and that Jordan's delegate to the United Nations had been instructed to inform U.N. members of the battle.

BRITISH

penditure control request," the Arkansas Democrat complained.

Mills rejected as "a fanciful notion" the argument of administration officials that Sunday's 14 per cent devaluation of the pound made a tax increase more necessary to defend the dollar from inflation and speculation.

"That a tax increase of the sort proposed will have any significant effect on our balance of payments in the reasonably near future and that it might contribute to the strengthening of the pound is completely without support of fact," he said.

But at the White House, Christian said the British move—followed by Federal Reserve Board action boosting its interest rate on loans to member banks from 4 to 4 1/2 per cent—made the surtax package "absolutely imperative," in the opinion of the President.

Christian verified congressional reports of a determined administration drive to get the tax increase enacted by Jan. 1. He did not affirm the surmise of one reporter, framed as a question, that the administration was seizing on the British move—and the consequent concern of Congress over defense of the dollar—to get the surtax enacted.

Mills said Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler had been in touch with him over the weekend to tell him that the administration had something new to present.

He said Fowler, Budget Director Charles L. Schultze and Chairman William McChesney Martin of the Federal Reserve Board would be witnesses at the committee's executive session a week from today.

If the world loses confidence in the dollar, as well as in the pound, then the entire value relationship of currencies would be disrupted. Confidence would evaporate. Chaos would reign.

The committee voted for substantially larger monthly payments than the House as well as for bigger payroll taxes.

A bipartisan group of 15 senators said they plan to push amendments to the welfare sections of the bill designed to remove what they term coercive provisions which might force mothers on welfare to work.

The amendment to boost medical payments to hospitals, sponsored by Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, and adopted by voice vote, would make it possible to reimburse them on a per diem costs basis.

Social Security administration experts said this would boost payments by $250 million a year since it would mean averaging of costs over all classes of patients.

Elderly patients generally cost less than younger ones, they said, and up to now the administration has insisted on limiting reimbursement closely to the costs for the specific old persons involved.

Sen. Fred R. Harris, D-Okla., offered the amendment to require all states to put into effect by mid-1969 programs to provide welfare aid to families with dependent children and jobless fathers. It was adopted 39 to 36.

Under present law states are not required to include unemployed fathers in welfare assistance programs and only 22 do so.

Harris said this meant many fathers were leaving their families just to make them eligible for the Aid to Dependent Children program.

Dear Helen: I had a sudden idea. Why not send S.O.S. buttons in my Christmas cards to kids my age? We've got lots of nieces and nephews and things, and also friends from all over because we're Army and move a lot.

When is the latest we could order buttons and still get them out to people by Christmas? — LOOKING AHEAD

Dear Looking: If you order buttons on November 22-26, I can have them to you in the week of December 4th. Merry Christmas! — H.

cents each button.

Dear Helen: What're the most unusual reasons you've received for buying an S.O.S. button? — CURIOUS

Dear Curious: How about these!

Dear Helen: I would like an SOS button for my sister, to show her how I feel about her boyfriend! — BIG BROTHER

Dear Helen: I would like to order a button. I am not saying I wouldn't go steady with a boy if he asked, but as of now, no one has — AGE 14

Dear Helen: A girl friend of mine was having problems with a boy friend who wanted to be more than a friend. And your button got the message across WITHOUT any hurt feelings. So I'm ordering three. — CHRIS

Dear Helen: My town's kinda small and very stupid. If you're seen walking or talking to some guy twice everyone thinks you're going steady, but you don't have a date if you're not.

But, worst of all, if you're "going steadily" you're labeled as Jimmy's or Danny's "girl" so hands off!

I sure hope SOS will stop the pairing off that high school students seem in such a hurry to do— to other couples! —YUK

Dear Helen:

At first I thought your SOS Club was for the birds, but now I see what you mean! I thought it was great going steady until my girl friend broke up with me. Then it hit!

I never thought I could be this popular with girls. I have several real good girl friends and one extra special. So now I see the light. I know how much fun it is to be free. Send along that button fast. — A GUY WHO HAS SEEN THE LIGHT.

Dear Helen:

The first week after my steady and I broke up I thought it was the end of the world. Then one day I got to talking with a boy who had avoided me because I was "Johnny's girl." He learned I wasn't any more. A few days later he and several other fellas came by my house. They're a bunch of decent kids who like girls but don't go for this "Steadily" business. So now my house and yard are where the teens come to talk and make casual dates. We girls make it plain to them we won't be playmates, and they respect us.

I've discovered that freedom is best. You get a choice of who you want to date, when, and if you want to see him again. It's like having a fan club — and the boys think it's great. Incidentally, I'm not what you'd call a great catch, but I don't make demands and I get jealous and possessive — and I act decent. Guys appreciate this. So they keep coming around and I'm having — THE TIME OF MY LIFE.

WANT AN SOS BUTTON? Send 10 cents for each button to HELEN'S SOS CLUB, Box 8504, Sacramento, California, 95822.

Commissions could be purchased in the British army as late as 1871, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Orange Bowl Gets Vols, Sooners

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

"It is mighty nice," said Tennessee Coach Doug Dickey, "to be wanted at a time like this."

The top post-season college football bowl games began taking shape Monday, the first day bids could be extended under NCAA rules.

Dickey's once-beaten Volunteers, rated second in the country, will meet Oklahoma, No. 5, in the Orange Bowl in Miami, Fla., the night of January 1.

"We're looking forward to the game," said Sooner Coach Chuck Fairbanks. "It's the one my boys wanted. But we've still got two tough games left."

Oklahoma can clinch the Big Eight title by beating Nebraska Thanksgiving Day and then Oklahoma State, Tennessee can wrap up the Southeastern Conference title with victories over Kentucky and Vanderbilt.

Alabama accepted a bid to meet the Southwest Conference champion in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1 in Dallas. Bear Bryant's ninth-rated Crimson Tide is 7-1-1. If Texas A&M wins its traditional contest with Texas Thursday, the Aggies would be the host club.

Texas, Texas Tech and Texas Christian also still have a chance to go to the bowl. It will be the third appearance in the Dallas game for Alabama, which beat A&M 29-21 in 1942 and lost to Rice 28-6 in 1954.

Wyoming, the last of the major unbeaten college teams, will meet Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, La. The Cowboys, 10-0, are rated seventh in the latest poll. LSU is 5-3-1.

The news of the bid was warmly received in Laramie, Wyo., where students, players, the university president and even the governor showed their excitement. Some 10,000 residents of the state are expected to make the trip.

Southern California, of course, will be the host team in the Rose Bowl. The Trojans assured themselves of the Pacific 8 title with its 21-20 victory over UCLA. Indiana and Minnesota still are in contention for the Big Ten spot.

Indiana can go to the bowl if it beats Purdue or if it ties Purdue and Minnesota loses to winless Wisconsin. If both lost Indiana goes. The Hoosiers have never been to the Rose Bowl.

Colorado accepted a Bluebonnet Bowl bid for Houston on Dec. 23. The runner-up in the Southwest Conference could be the opposing team as could Georgia, which has also been sounded out by the Liberty Bowl, to be played in Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 16.

Penn State, 7-2, accepted a bid to the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 30. Chances are the opposition will be provided by the winner of this Saturday's Florida-Florida State game.

Miami is thought to be a Liberty Bowl possibility if it beats Notre Dame this week. Missouri was considered for the game, but the team decided Monday against accepting any bowl bid.

Mississippi, 4-3-1, will go to the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on Dec. 30. The selection committee was reportedly considering six teams—Syracuse, Nebraska, Florida, Florida State, Arizona State, and the University of Texas at El Paso—as possible opponents.

Barbie, Other Toys Are Off to Vietnam Thanks to Charity

By SALLY RYAN
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Barbie is off for Vietnam, along with Batman, Little Snoopy and a host of other toys American children will find under the Christmas tree.

A toy salesman on a one-man campaign, individual toy companies, charity organizations and his in Vietnam already have helped get toys to thousands of Vietnamese youngsters for Tet Tan Sun, the Vietnamese New Year. More are on the way.

"Last year we donated a few toys to two orphanages in Vietnam, and from the letters of gratitude and the pictures of the children receiving the toys, we know how much good it can do, not only for the American image abroad," said H. H. Coords, president of Fisher-Price Toys, Inc., the preschool toy manufacturer in East Aurora, N.Y.

This fall, 100,000 wagons and balls, wheelbarrows and ball-throwers, dolls and games, have been donated to be distributed by the Marines as part of their civil action program.

"I'm not a crusader or anything, but I thought it was right," said Jay Krotzman, 31, the New York toy salesman who organized drive. "My next-door neighbor is a retired Marine major, and he told me about the civil action program to help the Vietnamese."

I sent out 325 letters, and 60 percent responded. They were great. One manufacturer in New Jersey sent 50,000.

Krotzman asked for and got toys, baby toys, gym balls, plastic toys, puzzles, models and plush animals.

"Please don't send any guns and war toys," he asked. He said Marines suggested no guns, some toy guns have been shipped to Vietnam under other programs, however.

Play-Heddon division of Victor Company Corp., Rogers, Ark., has sent cap pistols, toy rifles and gun holster sets to individual servicemen to give to children in their areas "almost since the first Christmas U.S.

Maple Leaf Player Out of Hospital
TORONTO (AP) — Frank Mahovlich returned to Maple Leaf Gardens Monday for the first time since he was admitted to a hospital Nov. 2 and Dr. Hugh Smythe said the right winger may be skating again with the Toronto Maple Leafs next week.

The National Hockey League star was hospitalized with what doctors termed acute depression and tension, but for the last week has been skating in secret at a private club.

Next weeks program time will be used by W. H. Gunter, chairman of the annual Christmas Auction which will be held this year on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, December 6-7-8.

Guests Monday were Bob Lewis, Bobby Foster and Don Adams.

servicemen spent in Vietnam. This year it increased its contribution to 1,000 items, 200 more than in 1966.

Catholic Relief Services will distribute nearly 2,000 abandoned Barbie dolls traded in by their young American owner on a newer, twistier model.

Hundreds of other toys will be distributed by servicemen.
Mr. Mike Voorhees saw the children in the village of Xuan Ho and wrote home to Tonka Corp. at Mount, Minn., which sent off 125 steel trucks.

"What you have done has brought smiles and happiness over the faces of 125 children," Voorhees wrote back.

LRU Paper Raps Merger With U of A

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little Rock University's official student newspaper says the proposed merger of LRU and the University of Arkansas is an insidious UA plot and should be given no further consideration.

An unsigned editorial in today's edition of the bi-monthly paper blames LRU's "financial crisis" on a "well-planned program by the UA to force LRU to merge."

It says the UA would gain a $9 million campus, while LRU would only endangers its scholarship rating and run the risk of losing some of its instructors.

"Under these circumstances and present situations, the merger proposal should be dropped and the University of Arkansas forced to make restitution to LRU for financial losses resulting from the merger discussions," it says.

The editorial reflects the thinking of the "Committee to Save LRU," an organization that has distributed bumper stickers and circulars in opposition to the proposed merger.

Rogers Morris, editor of The Forum, said it reflected the views of the newspapers 10 staff members and an increasing number of students. He said some 3,000 copies of this week's edition would be circulated among the students.

Members of the LRU board of trustees abandoned the school "when it was fighting for its very life," and they should "voluntarily vacate themselves from board positions," the editorial says.

Romney and Nixon Wait and Hope

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer
In his spacious Manhattan law office, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon prepares a book on the issues confronting America.

A third of a continent away, beneath the dome of Michigan's state capitol, Gov. George Romney polishes a proposed Vietnam policy alternative.

Even as Nixon and Romney devote long hours to what one aide calls "homework for next spring's drills," their supporters are ranging from New Hampshire's rocky hills to California's sunny suburbs, wooing potential convention delegates, building state organizations and raising money.

Though largely veiled from public view, this maneuvering for the Republican presidential nomination has been under way for months. Now, with Romney an announced candidate and Nixon all but one, the scramble is bursting into the open.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan resumes his out-of-state appearances next month. Illinois Sen. Charles H. Percy is continuing an extensive speaking schedule while considering a trip to Vietnam.

And while New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller insists he doesn't want to be president, sources say his supporters are taking soundings of his strength in the Midwest.

Political pros in Washington and other key cities say Nixon is far ahead in the race for the nomination to oppose President Johnson's expected re-election bid. Most polls reach the same conclusion.

Romney supporters, while conceding they trail Nixon at least two-to-one in New Hampshire are banking on a strong showing in that state's March 12 presidential primary. They say, and Nixon strategists agree, that the Michigan governor is at his best in the personal contact campaigning he plans in New Hampshire.

Romney, who plans a globe-girdling trip beginning early next month, was in Washington Monday assailing Johnson's fiscal record but backing the President's policy of not halting U.S. bombing of North Vietnam without a promise of reciprocal action from Hanoi.

In other Monday developments:
—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, in Washington for a medical checkup, said he doesn't plan to play a major role in the 1968 presidential campaign whoever his fellow Republicans nominate.

—New York Mayor John V. Lindsay told newsmen in Washington he won't be a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination now or in the future.

—The chairman of Georgia's Democratic organization, James Gray, said in Atlanta he believes there's a strong possibility Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., will replace Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on the party's 1968 ticket.

Welfare Cash Crises Gets a Boost

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Welfare Department eased its financial crisis by dipping into a general state fund Monday and indicated that it might have to do it again next month.

The department took $150,000 from a general budget revolving fund financed by interest earned on some of the state's invested money.

Julian C. Hogan, director of the state Administration Department, said the money would be used to match federal funds.

Hogan established the fund in 1961, when former Gov. Orval Faubus stripped state reserves for a massive construction program. As of July 1, it totaled $6 million, Hogan said it was a cushion fund for all state agencies.

Whether the Welfare Department can tap it again next month depends on the amount of general revenues that come in before then, Hogan said.

General revenues are expected to be down from November 1966, when collections were inflated by both 1965 state income tax payments and the 1966 state income tax withholding system.

Insurance

At one time during World War II National Service Life Insurance policies reached a total of about $140 billion, equaling the total life insurance then in force by all the private life insurance companies combined.

Defectors in Russia Say GIs Don't Want to Fight in Vietnam

By JOHN WEYLAND
Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP) — Four U.S. sailors who deserted the carrier Intrepid in Japan told the Soviet public today that a majority of American servicemen do not want to fight in Vietnam.

A Soviet "peace committee" looking after the four said they are "resting" in Moscow but declined to give their whereabouts or future plans or to allow foreign newsmen to talk with them.

The four young men said on Moscow television Monday night they deserted in protest against U.S. policy in Vietnam. They are Richard D. Bailey, 19, of Jacksonville, Fla.; John Michael Barilla, 20, of Catonsville, Md.; Craig W. Anderson, 20, of San Jose, Calif., and Michael Lindner, 19, of Mount Pocono, Pa.

The U.S. Embassy said it has no intention of trying to contact the deserters or inquiring about them. A spokesman said the embassy plans to ignore them.

In an interview today in Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, the sailors said they would go on to other countries to continue their work against "the inhuman war in Vietnam." They did not say which countries.

The four young Americans jumped ship Oct. 24 while the Intrepid was in Japan for a recreation stay after a tour bombing North Vietnam.

A Japanese peace group which looked after the deserters said they went to the Soviet Union because they apparently did not consider Japan neutral in the Vietnam war.

"I think the majority of Americans do not want to fight in Vietnam," Barilla told Pravda, "but many of them lack decisiveness. They are drafted and they 'do their duty.'"

Barilla said his officers told him America has to fight in Vietnam to stop communism. He turned against the war he said, after watching planes loaded with bombs fly off from the Intrepid on raiding missions day after day.

"It became clear to me that we were killing people," he said. "I am convinced that the United States does not have any right to be in Vietnam."

Anderson said, "We would like to be an example to those who are beginning to understand the Vietnamese war."

He said that on the basis of what he observed on the Intrepid, he did not think the majority of pilots favored the war.

"But they prefer to remain silent," he said. "This personal indifference was one of the main reasons we decided to do something."

On the Moscow television program Monday night, broadcast in Russian and English and apparently recorded, the four answered questions put to them by three members of the Soviet peace committee.

Barilla said U.S. troops are imposing "Americanism" on the Vietnamese and that the antiwar movement in the United States will mushroom.

Halemaumau Fire Pit in Action

HILO, Hawaii (AP) — The Halemaumau firepit was back in full fountain Monday in what scientists at the volcano observatory have labeled the second phase of last week's eruption.

The firepit in Kilauea crater on Hawaii Island, about 150 miles southeast of Honolulu, erupted Nov. 5, with strong volcanic activity lasting more than 22 hours.

Two of four fountains in the center of the firepit played 50 feet or higher Monday morning.

In board-a-match team competition each board counts exactly the same in the final standing. A win by 10 points and a win by 2,000 points is still just one win. Thus, some players try to win boards by playing a hand in no-trump instead of a major suit. If they can make the same number of tricks at either contract, the 10-point difference is a win.

When the team of Jim, Judy, Mary Zita and Oswald Jacoby put Oswald over the 10,000 Master Point mark in Dallas, they were faced with a possible 10-point loss when the older Jacobys bid and made a normal four hearts while at the other table the opponents played the hand at three no-trump.

We don't think much of South's bid of two no-trump. South was looking at two little spades, and Judy's double of two diamonds had clearly shown a club-spade hand. Still South bid two no-trump and North raised to three on the theory that his seven hearts would all take tricks at no-trump.

As you can see, three no-trump is a very bad contract. Judy's king of spades held the first trick, but she wasn't too happy about it. Jim did play the seven, but if Jim had started with just two spades he would have to shift after winning the second spade with his ace and would surely shift to a club. After all, South had bid diamonds, not clubs. Judy solved the problem of getting a diamond return from Jim by leading her ten of spades at trick two. This lead of an unusually high spade was a most unusual example of a suit preference signal.

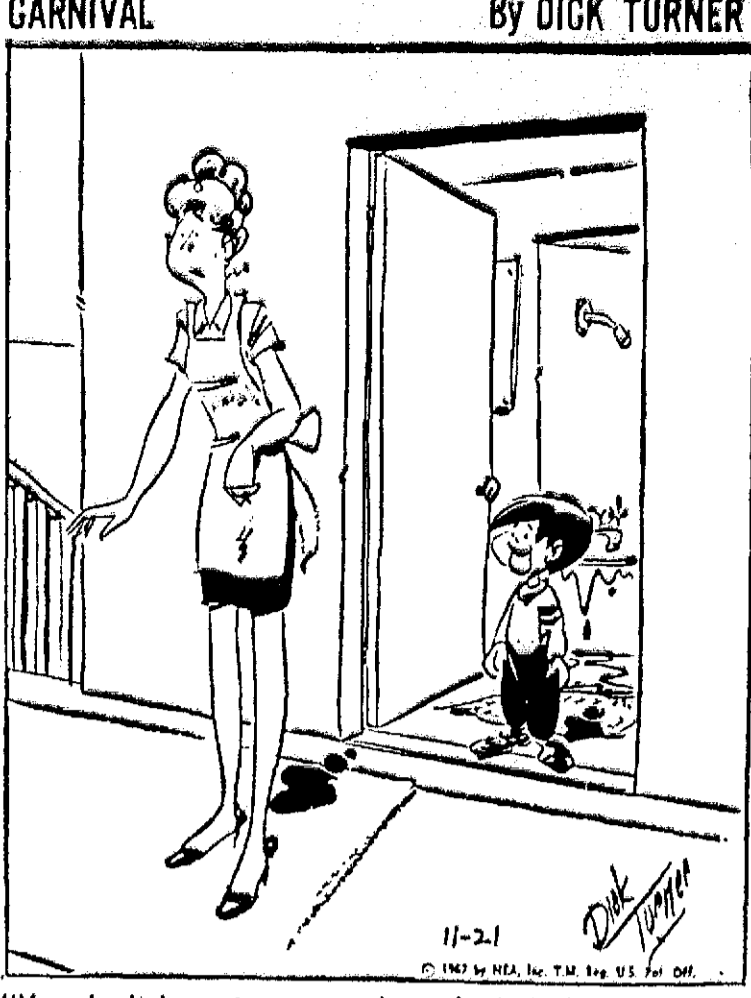

It wasn't needed this time because Jim had a third spade to lead back, but good players go out after every trick they can get. Jim knew he could set three no-trump with a 16-least elevated spade lead but he played a diamond anyway. This gave Judy two diamond tricks in addition to the rest of her spades, and South was down three instead of only two.

Mrs. Kefauver Victim of Heart Attack

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nancy Kefauver, 58, widow of Tennessee Sen. Estes Kefauver and a State Department art adviser, collapsed at a formal Washington dinner and died in a hotel room Monday night.

She had been carried from the Mayflower Hotel's grand ballroom only a short time before President Johnson, a longtime friend of the Kefauvers, arrived to make a dinner speech. A police coroner said her death was due to "heart failure."

Johnson apparently was unaware Mrs. Kefauver had died in a seventh floor room as he paid tribute to the dinner's guest of honor, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

The dinner, attended by more than 500, was an annual award event of the Veterans of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS). Mrs. Kefauver attended with a cousin of her late husband, Malcolm Fooshee, a New York attorney.

Fooshee said Mrs. Kefauver "didn't seem to be herself" at the dinner.

Fooshee and friends carried Mrs. Kefauver to his hotel room after she slumped forward at the banquet table. An ambulance with oxygen and two doctors were summoned, but resuscitation efforts failed.

Mrs. Kefauver, vivacious and red-haired, was once a familiar figure in politics, campaigning for years with her tall Tennessee husband, who won five terms in the House, three in the Senate and ran in 1956 as vice-presidential candidate on the unsuccessful Democratic ticket with Adlai Stevenson.

Kefauver called her "my secret weapon."

When Kefauver died in 1963 at the age of 60, friends and constituents urged Mrs. Kefauver to run for her husband's unexpired Senate term. She declined.

Russia Trying for Amphibious Attack Force

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources say the Soviet Union apparently is building a second helicopter carrier and suggest the Soviets may be bent on developing a significant amphibious warfare force.

The sources interpreted the development as a sign the Soviets may be belatedly taking a leaf out of the American book and building a force that could intervene with Marine-like troops in overseas crises.

The construction of the new vessel reportedly is in its early stages, but Pentagon experts said it appears to be a helicopter carrier like the first such Soviet ship whose existence was disclosed publicly only about a month ago.

The first helicopter carrier, about 600 feet long and less than 30,000 tons, is being outfitted near Odessa in the Black Sea, the sources said. The second carrier is being built in the same place.

The rise of Soviet interest in amphibious warfare has been a matter of concern for the United States and for its North Atlantic Treaty Organization partners.

Since the Arab-Israeli war last June, the Soviets have maintained a fleet of more than 45 warships and supporting vessels in the Mediterranean. Five of these ships are amphibious types.

Coupled with this is the evident attention the Soviets are giving to their "naval infantry," roughly a counterpart of the U.S. Marine Corps.

After an on-again, off-again history, the Soviet naval infantry apparently was revived a little more than three years ago. Estimates now place its strength at only about 3,000—roughly 1 per cent of the size of the Marine Corps.

U.S. authorities say the Soviet naval infantry is being developed as an elite force. Naval infantrymen wear a distinctive uniform, topped off by a black beret.

If the Soviets use their helicopter carriers in the same way as the United States, they would station them off potential trouble spots of political interest to the Soviet Union.

In event of a decision to establish a Soviet military presence, the Soviet navy could fly naval infantrymen from the carriers and land them in helicopters on foreign shores.

So far, Pentagon experts said, the Soviets have only a tiny capacity for any kind of cold war "show of force" amphibious operation.

"It's a drop in the bucket now," one intelligence expert said, "but we really don't know to what extent they are going to expand their naval infantry and amphibious capability."

Markets Over World React Sharply

By JACK LEFLER

AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock, bond and commodity markets reacted feverishly to devaluation of the British pound and boosts in British and U.S. interest rates.

Many apprehensive traders sold Monday in an effort to protect their investments.

Prices fell sharply in early trading on the New York Stock Exchange but recovered most of their losses by the close.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials fell 14.96 points in the first half hour of trading but closed off 4.33 at 857.58.

In New York, the price of U.S. government bonds declined.

American grain prices dropped and meat prices dipped. Commodity prices, including cocoa, sugar and copper, were mixed.

Apprehension had built up among investors after the British pound was devalued to $2.40 from $2.80, the British lending rate was raised to 8 per cent from 6.5 per cent and the U.S. discount was increased to 4.5 per cent from 4 per cent during the weekend.

The devaluation was intended to bolster the sagging British economy by making exports more attractive by lowering their price by about 14.3 per cent. At the same time, the devaluation increased the price the English must pay for imports by about the same amount.

The British government plagued by years of importing more than it exports, hoped the devaluation would change its balance of trade.

The boost in the British lending rate was designed to attract foreign investment in Britain by paying a higher interest rate and also to slow economic activity.

The U.S. Federal Reserve Board hiked its official lending rate for the same reason—to tighten the money supply.

A result of the devaluation may be that Americans will pay less for Scotch, sweaters, china and other imports from Britain. But importers say this may not result until after Christmas.

Some financial sources expressed the opinion that the adverse reaction of the financial developments on the stock market may be brief.

Mental Anguish

With blunt and angry language, Millie's boss told her she was fired. Understandably upset, Millie filed suit for the "mental anguish" she had suffered.

But she could point to no personal violence, no slanderous words. The court concluded that her complaint was not tangible enough to support a claim for damages.

"That has long been a basic rule of law. You may collect damages for mental anguish only if it is the result of some other wrongful act, such as assault or battery or false imprisonment. But not for mental anguish alone."

Why hasn't the law given compensation for mental anguish just as freely as for physical anguish? Mainly because of the danger of opening a Pandora's box of fake claims. How could a court tell if the complaint of mental anguish, uncorroborated by any other specific offense, was really true?

Nevertheless, with the advance of science we have learned a great deal more about our mental processes—including the causes and effects of mental anguish.

As a result, the law has grown steadily more tolerant of such claims. It is now the evidence of a true and specific mental anguish, not a mere emotional upset, that is particularly our concern.

There is a certain wisdom in damages for mental anguish from a trouble maker, or from a false rumor that her son or daughter had hanged himself.

And a judge's award of damages for mental anguish from a future repossessor, who knowing that she was being "one-upped" by threats to make her open the door. However, the law does not and cannot promise total tranquility to one and all. As a leading authority put it:

"Against a large part of the irritations of community life, a certain toughening of the mental hide is a better protection than the law could ever be."

In one case, a customer in a bar took offense at a waiter's tactless comments. But when the customer demanded damages for his mental anguish, a court turned him down. "Plaintiff's charge amounts to nothing more than that his feelings were hurt," said the judge. "This does not state a cause of action."

hand—check the house number ture quality.

Q. How does Cable TV work?

A. Televisions signals are received at the antenna complex located off the Experiment Station Road. From this point the signal is provided throughout the city by means of coaxial cable attached to utility poles. The signal is kept constant by reamplifying or "boosting" the signal at certain intervals. This is done by mainline trunk amplifiers. Different amplifiers may serve different purposes, but they are installed for one purpose—To keep the signal as good as it was when it left the antenna site. Using these amplifiers, it is possible to maintain a strong signal, perfectly balanced for all the subscribers on the system, and to guarantee picture uniformity at all points on the cable.

Q. Will color reception be improved?

A. Viewing of good Color TV depends on the transmitting station, the color set adjustment, and most important, the reception of a strong uniform signal. While it is possible to receive color reception on home antennas, the distance to the station and the antenna height often cause the color to vary. With Cable TV the color and black and white signals are strengthened at the tower before being routed to subscribers homes. Also, the signals are "boosted" as they travel throughout Hope, thus assuring customers of a near-perfect picture level. Subscribers will receive color in perfect register with the cable. This non-varying signal insures better color. Also, the additional channels available on the TV Cable increase the number of color shows and the color viewing hours.

Q. Will the picture be clear and of good quality on the TV Cable?

A. CATV systems are almost as old as television itself, and the special electronic equipment used in your Hope Cable TV system is of the very latest transistorized design and has been engineered and manufactured by one of the leading firms in the field. Ameco, Inc. has constructed and provided all equipment used throughout the system. The cable will provide continuous, reliable, near-perfect reception on all channels.

Q. Can I connect more than one TV set to the cable?

A. Yes. We have special splitter units that allow additional tap-offs in your house for other TV sets. Using these units, only one wire is brought to the house from the main cable. All TVs connected to the cable can be operated at the same time.

Q. Does Hope Community TV, Inc. repair and sell TV sets?

A. No. Our business is to provide Hope with top-notch TV signals using our tower and coaxial cables. We will service and maintain all of our system up to and including the end of the cable on your TV set free—Free. Servicing of TV sets is a specialized field and in Hope you have some of the finest service shops anywhere. Servicing should be done by your qualified repairman. Should you desire to buy a new set, many new models are available.

Q. Must I sign a contract for a certain period of time when I subscribe?

A. No. You are in no way obligated to keep your Cable TV connection for any specific period of time. You pay a small monthly service charge in advance. If you desire to discontinue during the month you have paid, we will refund a pro-rata portion of the service charge which you have not used. Hope Community TV, Inc.'s goal is to provide you, the subscriber with good television viewing and complete satisfaction, not contracts.

Q. What channels will I receive when I connect to the cable?

A. Initially you will receive Eight TV channels and FM Radio plus a local time and weather channel on your TV set.

THANKSGIVING DAY

We wish each and every one of you a bountiful holiday in every way!

Let us give thanks for the many blessings that have been granted to our country. May it continue to prosper!

A trade visitor found something interesting in our shop yesterday - he got a Cook's tour while we were in the middle of preparations for another "first" for Arkansas newspapers.

But our visitor was in a position to understand what we were trying to do, being none other than C. O. Nicholson, manager of the Shreveport Engraving Co., Inc. Mr. Nicholson, just back from a manufacturers' show in Philadelphia, was checking up on our experience with the Berkeley color separator, and while here looked over the proofs of the first of two four-color productions which we expect to run in the same edition, probably Friday.

This double-header will be a "first" for Arkansas newspapers - If we get away with it. Heretofore all our color pictures have been grouped on a single set of four separation negatives printed on a single page in the newspaper. When you attempt two pages simultaneously you step up to eight negatives - meaning that you have twice the number of images to bring into exact "register" so the multi-printing of color will look like a single impression.

If we can handle two pages simultaneously the way is cleared for a special edition with process color almost anywhere. If we have trouble "registering" both layouts we'll drop out one and publish it later.

These are brand new color shots—the exhibits at the War Eagle Ozarks Handcraft Fair Oct. 21, and the Buffalo River Oct. 22. Both are a full-page wide.

The Buffalo River picture is finished, and the War Eagle negatives should be ready tonight. They should be The Star's best work to date, and we expect to publish them Friday, Nov. 24.

Man Killed in Auto Wreck

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Elvin Ray Smith, 22, of Sulphur Springs (Jefferson County) was killed Monday when his car went out of control and crashed on a country road near here.

Police said the car bounced off two concrete retaining walls, knocked down a road sign and stopped upside down in a pasture.

War End in View, Says Westmoreland

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland declared today the United States is about to enter a new phase of the Vietnam war in which "the end begins to come into view."

Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, predicted no target date for the end of the conflict, but he said already "the enemy's hopes are bankrupt."

His remarks came in a speech prepared for a National Press Club luncheon here.

The four-star general said the "new phase" of the war will begin next year with U.S. efforts to bring the South Vietnamese armed forces to such a point of combat effectiveness that eventually they can "take on an ever-increasing share of the war."

Beyond 1968, he did not predict the exact time—Westmoreland foresaw the United States moving into what he called "the final phase."

Teacher of Year Picked

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Education Commissioner A. W. 3rd Monday named Mrs. LaFetta Roberts of Rogers as Arkansas' Teacher of the Year.

Mrs. Roberts, 51, who has been teaching in the Rogers school system since 1950, was recommended for the award by Supt. Greer Hingle of Rogers and other professional people.

Liberty Bowl Queen Picked

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The new 1967 Liberty Bowl queen is Miss Nancy Brackham, 20, of Memphis, chosen Monday night from a field of 11 semi-finalists from a six-state area.

The blonde beauty will reign over the 1967 Liberty Bowl set for Dec. 16 in Memphis. She is a secretary and a psychology major at Memphis State University.

Four runners-up who will form the court for the new queen are Misses Margaret Gibson, 19, Russellville, Ark.; Nancy Lynn Baker, 19, Monticello, Ark.; Lynn Roland, 20, Jackson, Tenn.; and Cynthia Gay Vincent, 19, Martin, Tenn.

The queen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brackham. The title carries with it a new car.

No Newspaper Thanksgiving

As in the past the Star will suspend publication on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. This is one of three holidays this newspaper observes, the others being July 4 and Christmas. Regular publication will be resumed on Friday, November 24.

Government Says All Is Well But Crises May Be Just Ahead

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The "All is well" statements of American financial and government officials following the devaluation of the British pound are necessary but strictly for show. The trouble is serious; more crises may be ahead.

Immediately following the 14.3 per cent devaluation, in fact, the suspicions began to develop that this was not enough and that six to nine months from now a larger devaluation may be needed.

If such a second crisis does develop it will not be assimilated as easily as the first. The British knew that a minor devaluation was acceptable to much of the world; a larger one would cause other nations to devalue in self-defense.

This frightening picture is not extreme. It could very well occur if Britain is not successful in proving to the world that her pound will buy just as much as 2.4 dollars or 12 French francs or 9.6 German marks.

If the pound falls again, the pressure on the dollar to prove its relative value would be extreme. This country now guarantees that value by permitting foreign governments to redeem their dollars in gold.

However, these foreigners now have claims on more gold than we possess. We, too, have been running up big bills overseas, putting dollars in the hands of those who can test our contention that our money is

British Devaluation Renews Possibility of Income Tax Hike

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional passage of President Johnson's proposed income tax boost became a renewed possibility today as an indirect consequence of Britain's currency devaluation.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee, which calls the tax signals for Congress, announced a Nov. 28 hearing to consider a new administration surtax and cost-cutting package.

White House press secretary George Christian told newsmen Monday the package calls for the $7 billion, 10 per cent income tax surcharge Johnson requested Aug. 3, plus a matching $7 billion paring of expenditures.

But congressional sources said they understood the cost-cutting actually would amount only to about $4 billion in this fiscal year, which ends next June 30, including about $1 billion of cuts already made by Congress.

The surtax proposal had been considered dead for this session. If the British action has changed congressional sentiment, it could be enacted in time to take effect Jan. 1, Capitol Hill experts said, but only if Congress remains in session almost until Christmas.

The Ways and Means Committee shelved the Johnson tax plan on Oct. 3, it said the surtax would be considered again only if there was a firm agreement with the administration on reduced spending.

Mills apparently agreed to the new hearing despite some doubts it would bear fruit. He sandwiched his hearing announcement into a Hot Springs, Ark., speech that was sharply critical of the Johnson fiscal program.

"I have yet to receive a single, specific proposal from the administration as to how to implement the (committee's) ex-

18 of 82 Survive Plane Crash

By JAAN KANGILASKI
Associated Press Writer
CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — A team of federal investigators went to work today trying to determine why a TWA jet passenger plane crashed while approaching the Greater Cincinnati Airport Monday night, apparently killing 64 of 82 persons aboard.

"We counted up all our passengers again, and now find there were 75 passengers and seven crew members," said TWA District Manager A. B. Krueger. "There are 18 survivors."

"That leaves 64 persons not accounted for. I don't want to say they are all dead, but I don't have much hope for finding any more survivors," Krueger added.

Six of the survivors were reported in serious or critical condition in various area hospitals.

Most of the injured were rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital in Covington, Ky. Two-thirds of the nurses at the hospital resigned last week in a dispute with the management—but most of them reported back to work Monday night to care for the injured.

The debris-strewn crash scene is in an orchard about 1.5 miles north of the airport and not far from the spot where an American Airlines passenger plane crashed in 1965 with heavy loss of life.

Greater Cincinnati Airport is built south of the edge of a plateau above the Ohio River. The American Airlines plane smashed against the hillside 50 feet below the edge of the plateau. The TWA plane that crashed Monday night came down a few hundred yards past the edge, in plain sight of the runway lights.

Members of the National Transport Safety Board team arrived during the night. Several of them visited the crash site in the dark, but one of them, Oscar Laurel, said nothing significant was found. He said the team would be fully organized today.

Woodrow McKay, chief tower controller at the airport, said "a pretty good fire broke out" after the plane hit.

More than a score of persons were waiting inside the airport restaurant for the arrival of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Maude Cuneo of Hebron, Ky., said she saw a "great ball of fire," that it looked to her as though the plane had "exploded in the air."

The airplane was Trans World Airlines Convair 440 Flight 128 bound from Los Angeles to Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Boston. It was about two hours late, TWA said, because a faulty door of another plane caused passengers to be shifted in Los Angeles.

Dug-in Cong Delays U.S. Evacuation

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — While U.S. planes and artillery pounded dug-in North Vietnamese gunners, helicopter crews removed today the last of 140 American paratroopers wounded since Sunday in bitter fighting on the slopes of Hill 875.

Associated Press correspondent Peter Arnett reported one of the most brutal fights of the war under way as men of the 173rd Airborne Brigade attempted to take the remaining enemy bunkers on the hill in the central highlands 14 miles southwest of Dak To.

Short of food and water, the paratroopers battled stiff enemy fire as they continued their push to the summit. They used flamethrowers against the enemy's intricate bunker system.

U.S. jets pounded the entire area, attempting to keep to a schedule of one strike every 15 minutes. U.S. artillery gunners filled in the gaps.

Maj. Gen. William R. Peers said he felt the paratroopers would be on the summit of the hill late tonight.

U.S. casualties have mounted to at least 239 dead and 822 wounded during the 19 days of fighting around the Dak To Valley.

Although the North Vietnamese repeatedly drove off medical helicopters, five wounded men were lifted out Monday night. U.S. crewmen sped in and out of a clearing cut in the jungle growth and removed all the rest in a two-hour period today.

This was the second most costly battle of the Viet Nam war for American forces.

It raved in intensity the 1965 fighting in the Ia-Drang valley — also in the central highlands and also just before Thanksgiving — in which 310 Americans were killed.

Brig. Gen. L. H. Schweiter, commander of the 173rd Airborne Brigade, said the North Vietnamese were dug in so well on Hill 875 the U.S. guns and bombs couldn't hit their bunkers.

"We're going to have to dig them out man by man," he said.

Although the North Vietnamese repeatedly drove off medical helicopters, a few got through and lifted out five wounded men Monday night and 20 more today. But at least 61 wounded were still with the beleaguered battalions on the hill late Tuesday, AP Correspondent John Lengel reported from the Dak To command post.

Over North Vietnam, U.S. warplanes hit targets in the Hanoi-Haiphong area Monday for the sixth consecutive day and the U.S. Command announced two more U.S. planes were lost, one to a Communist MIG21. One flier was missing.

This brought the total of U.S. combat planes announced lost over the North to 751, including 13 planes and 16 pilots since last Thursday.

Highest Draft Call in 14 Months

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon today ordered the induction of 34,000 men into the Army in January, the highest draft call in 14 months.

The main reason for the high call, the Pentagon said, is that "the Army is now replacing the relatively large number of draftees originally inducted about two years ago when it was in its initial strength build-up" for the Vietnam war.

The total of 34,000 young men tabbed for induction in January compares with the November 1966 call of 37,600.

It more than doubles the average call this year of slightly more than 16,500.

The biggest monthly draft quota in 1967 totaled 29,000 in August.

The Pentagon said it expects that the average draft call in the January-June period next year will be at a somewhat higher average level than the last six months of this year, with fluctuations from month to month.
